	Today I read a newspaper article about environmental problems. The first problem is that there are fewer / too many regular cars on the road and not enough / less hybrids. The second problem is that our towns and cities need to give us more / too many recycling bins so that too many / more people will recycle glass, metal, and paper. The writer also believes that there is not enough / too much e-waste in our landfills.
	But the news isn't all bad. One good thing is that our shopping habits are improving. People are starting to buy less / fewer plastic bottles, and we are also using more / less cloth shopping bags. Another good thing is that people are beginning to understand that CFLs are good for the environment because they use $\mathop{\it less}_{8} \emph{/}$ not enough energy than regular lightbulbs.
