Quebec's Winter Carnival

Quebec's Winter Carnival is a special celebration in Canada. This holiday started about 50 years ago and lasts for 17 days each year. It celebrates the sights and sounds of winter.

The Winter Carnival has a special character called Bonhomme Carnaval. Bonhomme Carnaval looks like a snowman, but he is really a man in a snowman's costume. Bonhomme Carnaval is present at all of the carnival activities, and he plays an important role as the symbol of the celebration.

There are many exciting activities at the Winter Carnival. For example, there are night parades. There is also a snow sculpture display. This display is like an outdoor museum, where artists show sculptures they have made out of snow. Finally, there are many sporting events such as ski races, canoe races, and even a "snow swim." The Winter Carnival has become very popular with tourists. Now almost a million people come to this northern city to visit the carnival each year.
