2 Read the interview with an actor. Answer the questions.

Interviewer Tell us about your career, Bob.

Bob I studied at music school.

Interviewer Really? What did you study there?

Bob Ballet and modern dance, the guitar and piano, and I had singing lessons, of course. I wanted to be a professional singer, but I wasn't a very good singer.

Interviewer So what did you do after music school?

Bob I made a few TV adverts. The first one was for cat food!

Interviewer What about your first film?

Bob My first film was a comedy. I was very lucky to get the part.

Interviewer What did you do in this film?

Bob Well, I was in one scene in a disco and I won a competition for the best dancer. The director chose me for the part because I danced very well.

Interviewer What about make-up and costumes?

Bob You need make-up because of the strong lighting, but I wore normal clothes.

Interviewer What do you remember most about that film?

Bob The hard work!

Interviewer What plans have you got for the future?

Bob I'm going to make a new film this summer. It's a sci-fi film. I'm going to play a mad scientist. I'm going to move to Hollywood in June to start making the film.

Interviewer When can we see the film in Britain?

Bob In October.

Interviewer Thanks, Bob. And good luck with the film.

Why did he change his plans for the future?

Because he wasn't a (very) good singer.

- 1 What was his first job?

- 2 What type of film did he act in first?

- 3 What does he remember most about his first film?

- 4 What type of film is he going to make next?

- 5 When is he going to move to Hollywood?
