(Track 3)

1. Sharon I've never told anyone this, but . . . I've always wanted to be an artist. I mean, I've taken a few art classes, but I need to learn more. Sometimes I think maybe I should go to Europe and study the paintings in famous art museums – like the Louvre in Paris. I think I would learn a lot that way.
2. Mike We have a lot of good restaurants in this neighborhood, and I've eaten in most of them. Now, I like all kinds of food – Chinese, Mexican, Italian – but the restaurant I like best is a Thai place right around the corner. The food is a little spicy, but it's delicious. I've eaten there twice already this week.
3. David I'm an American, but I haven't always lived in the United States. When I was younger, I lived in Germany for a couple of years when my father was working there. I went to a German school, made German friends, and learned the language pretty well. I've never forgotten that time. It was amazing!
4. Jenny I had never really been interested in sports before. I mean, I played sports at school, but I didn't enjoy them. Then a friend of mine taught me how to play tennis. I wasn't very good at first, but I've gotten much better. Now I play all the time. I've even won a few competitions.
