(Track 4)

Conversation 1

- Man* So how was your cruise to Alaska, Beth?
- Beth* Oh, it was wonderful. It's probably the best trip we've ever taken.
- Man* Hey, you've traveled a lot, so that means something. . . . What was the most interesting part?
- Beth* The most interesting part? Well, the entire cruise was interesting, but I'd say the scenery – definitely.
- Man* Really? What's the scenery like?
- Beth* It's just so beautiful and . . . different.
- Man* What was the most beautiful thing you saw?
- Beth* Well, everything was beautiful, but the most incredible thing was, well, I have to say the mountains. You could see them from the ship, and they were amazing! I've never seen anything like them.
- Man* Wow, that does sound incredible. So what else?
- Beth* Well, it was a cruise, so of course it was very restful. It was so relaxing! It's probably the most I've ever relaxed on vacation.
- Man* Nice. You know, you always hear about the food on cruises. Was it good?
- Beth* Oh, yeah, it was the greatest! But you eat too much and too often. I gained over five pounds.

Conversation 2

- Woman* Welcome back, Andy! Did you enjoy your trip?
- Andy* Oh, yeah. Uh, kind of . . . well, actually, the trip was exhausting. It was just, you know, the most difficult, frustrating trip. We had so many problems. . . .
- Woman* Oh, I'm sorry. What happened?
- Andy* Well, for one thing, our flight was canceled at the last minute, so we had to wait at the airport for hours.
- Woman* That's terrible.
- Andy* Yeah. And then we stayed at probably the worst hotel.
- Woman* The worst hotel? Really?
- Andy* Yes. It was awful! I mean, it was on this really busy street. I think it was the busiest street in the city!
- Woman* Oh, no.
- Andy* Yeah, and it was right next to the most popular club in town, so it was really noisy.
- Woman* Why was the club so noisy?
- Andy* Well, it was a dance club. They were playing loud music all night! I hardly slept at all.
- Woman* I'm sorry to hear that. It sounds like you need another vacation!
