My Family's Photos

by Steve Barry

I wonder if your family is like mine. We have a lot of old family photos, but we never organized them in a scrapbook, and they don't have dates on them or anything. My parents keep all of our photos in a box in the closet. Every two or three years, when we're together, we decide to look at them. We talk about the people in the photos and the events. We usually remember a lot about the recent photos, but not about the old ones. And we have trouble with some of the recent photos, too. For example, all of the Thanksgiving holiday pictures show the family around a big table with lots of food on it. They almost all look the same, and it's difficult to know the exact year, so we argue about that. But it's something we like doing – talking about the family photos. It helps us remember our many good times together.

- a. Steve's family's photos are in a scrapbook.
- b. The photos have dates on the back.
- c. The photos are at Steve's parents' house.
- d. They look at the photos every year.
- e. They don't remember much about the newer photos.
- f. A lot of the photos look very similar.
- g. They don't always agree on the date of the photos.
- h. They enjoy looking at family photos.
